Summary

Hi, I'm Ibrahim Khalil Tushar—a dedicated frontend developer passionate about creating responsive and user-friendly web applications.

My expertise lies in JavaScript (ES6+), React.js, and Firebase. I enjoy transforming ideas into interactive digital experiences.

Currently, I'm working on projects that involve:

Implementing React.js features like Hooks and Context API

Integrating Firebase for authentication and real-time data handling

Enhancing UI/UX for better user engagement

I'm on the lookout for opportunities to collaborate, learn, and contribute to innovative web development projects. Let's connect and build something amazing together!
